Genoese coins: The artistic and economic history of Genoese coins between 1139 and 1814

by Giovanni Pesce

The Republic of Genoa was an independent state from 1005 to 1797 in Liguria on the Mediterranean coast of Italy. Following the economic and population collapse, Genoa adopted the Genovese currency system. At the time of Genoa's peak in the 16th century, the city attracted many artists, including Leonardo da Vinci. However, in April 1814, the city was captured by British troops between 17 and 22 April 1814, marking the end of the Republic of Genoa.
