The Report and Recommendations of the Bridgeport Vice Commission, 1916

by Various.

1919, a Chicagoan Commission on Race Relations was formed from black, and submitted its report, The Negro in Chicago, to the public. Significantly, it contained 59 recommendations for city planning, along with a map depicting South Side black residential areas in 1916 and the changing population distributions, and maps of vice resorts. The Progressives and the Prostitute - Wiley Online Library

The Progressives and the Prostitute - Lubove - 1962 - Chicago History

The Railway Swindle by Henry Murray - 1916 - 160 pages

The Report and Recommendations of the Bridgeport Vice Commission by Bridgeport (Conn.). For Business and Pleasure: Red-Light Districts and the Regulation of vice. - Google Books Result Fairfield, Bridgeport, Stratford, and 6 photographs of street scenes. Recommends Plan of Systematic Enrollment for Military Service.